

Barbara Dominick

Barbara Dominick is a second-generation Pirate who holds a Bachelor of Science ('92) and Master of Science ('95) in Child and Family Relations. Barbara's professional career included teaching at both the Community College and University level before joining the Georgia Department of Early Care and Learning where she played a lead role in designing the state's prekindergarten standards.

Barbara has spent the last two decades leading the Dominick family while passionately engaging in a number of philanthropic causes. Her service spans a variety of sectors including public and private education, faith-based initiatives, healthcare, the Arts, youth programs, and other human service and social organizations.

Barbara is married to Kirk Dominick (ECU '91). Barbara and Kirk reside in Orlando, Florida and Pine Knoll Shores, North Carolina and have two children, Thomas (25) and Caroline (23) both of whom forsook their Pirate DNA to become Ole Miss Rebels. With the children grown, Barbara loves to spend time gardening and cooking and working as a Jewelry Consultant with Elizabeth Richards Collection.
