

Clay Walker

Clay Walker currently serves as the General Manager of ECU Sports Properties. He previously held senior leadership roles with PrestoSports, BigTeams, USA TODAY Sports and the NFL Players Association. Clay has served on the East Carolina University Foundation Board of Directors and currently serves on the Advancement Council for ECU's College of Health and Human Performance. Clay received an Outstanding Alumni Award from East Carolina University for outstanding and uncommon professional achievement. In 2005, he became the first person from a sports union to make the Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40 list of most influential people in sports business. Clay earned a B.A. in English from East Carolina University, an M.B.A. from Colorado State University and an M.S. in Labor Relations from the University of Massachusetts, Amherst.