

Dawn Cash-Salau

Dawn Cash-Salau is the proud owner of Escrow Consulting and Accounting, LLC, specializing in trust accounting with an impressive 25-year career in the field of accounting. Her extensive expertise was cultivated through years as a Staff Accountant and as the Bookkeeping Department Manager, providing her with a well-rounded understanding of various industries.

An alumna of East Carolina University, Dawn graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration in Accounting in 1996. Her commitment and contributions have been acknowledged with the Honorary Alumna at NC Wesleyan College award in 2008. Dawn is not only a successful professional but also an active community member, serving as the Founder and Race Director of the Reindeer Dash for Cash 10 Miler & 5k and the Founder and Board Chair of The CPT Cash Memorial Foundation of NC, Inc.

In recognition of her outstanding achievements, Dawn was inducted into the Distinguished Military Service Society at East Carolina University in 2014. The following year, she earned membership in The Honor Society of Phi Kappa Phi through election by the East Carolina University Chapter. Her dedication to ECU is further demonstrated by being recognized as an Honorary Alumna at the College of Health & Human Performance and serving as a valued member of the Advancement Council for the College of HHP at East Carolina University.
