

Keri Brockett Carelas

Keri Brockett Carelas currently serves as the College of Health and Human Performance Advancement Council Vice-Chair. She is originally from Fayetteville, North Carolina. Keri graduated from East Carolina University in 2008 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Child Life. She completed an internship at Johns Hopkins Children's Center in Baltimore, Maryland and is a Certified Child Life Specialist (CCLS). While at ECU, Keri was very involved. She worked for Campus Recreation and Wellness for four years as a Site Manager and Scorekeeper. She was a member of the National Society of Collegiate Scholars, Alpha Delta Pi Sorority, was the 2006 Homecoming Queen, was inducted into the ECU Servire Society, was the 2007 Student Body President, and sat on the Board of Trustees as the student voice and a voting member for East Carolina University. In addition, she was the Chair of the Presidents Council for the UNC Association of Student Governments. Keri continues to be actively involved in the community and in many organizations, to include: being on this council; being a Lifetime Member of the Girl Scouts of the United States of America; Association of Child Life Professionals; ECU Alumni Association and the Robert Wright Society; the Fort Liberty Spouses Club; and her church and its activities. She has received many recognitions for her involvement over the years, to include: being named a Fayetteville, NC 40 Under 40 recipient a few years ago. Keri is married to Nick Carelas, an ECU alumnus and a United States Army Officer, stationed at Fort Liberty, and they have two little girls.