

Medical Family Therapy Program's Diversity Composition

Diversity Statement

The Marriage and Family Therapy (MFT) and Medical Family Therapy (MedFT) programs at East Carolina University are committed to equality and prohibit the unlawful discrimination on the following protected classes: race, ethnicity, color, genetic information, national origin, citizenship, religion and spiritual beliefs and/or affiliation, sex (including pregnancy and pregnancy related conditions), sexual orientation, gender identity, age, relationship status, socioeconomic status, disability, health status, political affiliation and veteran status.

Approved by MedFT Faculty November 27, 2017

Core MedFT Faculty (2021-2022)

Gender	Race/Ethnicity	Languages Spoken
3 Male	1 American Indian or Alaskan Native	6 English
3 Female	5 white/non-Hispanic	1 Spanish

Clinical Supervisors (2021-2022) (* includes the 6-core faculty and clinic director; diversity composition may vary depending on assigned supervisors available at students' active clinical assistantship sites)

Gender	Race/Ethnicity
3 Male	1 American Indian or Alaskan Native
4 Female	6 white/non-Hispanic

Internship/Off Site Placement Supervisors (2021-2022)

Gender	Race/Ethnicity	AAMFT Approved Supervisors
2 Male	1 Hispanic/Latino 1 white/non-Hispanic	1 approved
3 Female	3 white/non-Hispanic	2 approved

HDFS Faculty (2021-2022)

Gender	Race/Ethnicity
4 Male	1 American Indian or Alaskan Native
21 Female	3 Asian American
	4 Black or African American
	16 white/non-Hispanic
	1 Multiethnic

MedFT Students (As of January 2022)

Gender	Race/Ethnicity	Languages Spoken
2 Male	1 Turkish/white	English
6 Female	6 white/non-Hispanic	Spanish
	1 Black or African American	Turkish
		Russian